- Be Dazzled! Norman Hartnell: Sixty Years of Glamour and Flash provides a source of enlightenment for the most seasoned of fashion aficionados and followers and deserves a place in the library of fashion – Jeffrey Felner, New York Journal of Books
- Michael Pick reveals... Hartnell not only designed one of the most important dresses of the 20th century, the Queen's coronation outfit, but was single-handedly responsible for turning London into a design centre, if not to rival Paris, at least to challenge its sole, overwhelming supremacy- The Telegraph

Book Description

Follow renowned British designer Sir Norman Hartnell's meteoric rise to fame in Be Dazzled!

Designing for the best-known stage and film actresses, the British upper class, and the Royal Family, Hartnell helped make London an international center of style during his more than 50 years as a designer. With countless never-before-seen drawings, photographs, fabric samples, and scrapbooks, Be Dazzled! is the authoritative visual biography of a style legend.
