Dennis the Orangutan.

With a foreword of Dennis Weening, Ambassador of the foundation Jaan, and whom Dennis is named after.

Dennis is a victim of the palm oil industry and rescued from the hands of an animal trader after his mother was killed, along with a lot of other species. Dennis symbolizes all the victims of the palm oil industry and to call attention for the situation in Indonesia and the use of palm oil, the campaign Save Dennis started.

Ted Van Der Hulst is a specialized portrait photographer who captures character in his photographs. He followed the progress of Dennis the Orangutan, at the SOCP Rehabilitation Centre in Sumatra. He captured the daily life of Dennis and his emotionally journey that he has to take without his mother. Dennis is a symbol -the main purpose is to raise awareness for the plight of the Orangutan and the Rainforests through Dennis's Story.
