

AFTERHOURS BOOKS

INDONESIAN SOUTH SEA PEARLS

Price: £47

By Ingrid Mutiara Sutardjo & Nunik Anurningsih

ISBN 978-6029750768

Pearls have been prized by mankind since ancient times.

Now, the allure of this extraordinary miracle, an exquisite gem created by a living animal, is as strong as ever, judging by the multi-billion-dollar pearl industry. South Sea pearls – among the rarest of cultured pearls – are renowned for their soft iridescence, satiny luster, and generous size.

The most beautiful South Sea pearls are produced in Indonesia, which is the biggest producer of South Sea pearls in the world.

Yet Indonesian South Sea pearls are hidden treasures, unknown to Indonesians and foreigners alike.

Cover: Hardcover with dust jacket, Foil stamped cloth-bound hardcover

Body: Matt coated paper with overprint varnish

Size: 24 x 32.5 cm (portrait)

Pages: 170

Colours: Full colour