Description

Experience the iconic Glass House—Phillip Johnson’s modernist home in New Canaan, Connecticut—in a fun new way in The Glass House Colouring Book.

Three dozen black-and-white illustrations capture the architectural highlights of Johnson’s visionary mid-century glass-and-steel pavilion, which ushered the International Style into residential American architecture.

Each illustration is accompanied by the photograph that inspired it along with caption information detailing its historical and aesthetic significance. Landscape and design elements include furniture designed by Mies van der Rohe, the chain-link Ghost House, and the skylit Sculpture Gallery. Fascinating to read and relaxing to color, the book makes a wonderful keepsake and gift idea for architecture and design enthusiasts and colourists of all ages
